SHINNSTON

SHINNSTON, Mar. 21 — Miss Clara Richardson was shopping at Clarksburg Wednesday morning.

The Rev. Mr. Lawson, pastor the local Methodist Protestant church, who has been holding a series of meetings at the Haywood Methodist Protestant church for the last two weeks, is home again. The meetings were well attended and there were about fifty conversions. The church has taken in more members this winter than it has within the last three years.

Harold T. Sturm has accepted a position with the Shinnston News.
Mr. Weightman, of Enterprise, was a visitor here a few days ago.

Mrs. Selvy and daughter, Irene, were guests of Mrs. Selvy's sister, Mrs. F. C. Richardson, Tuesday evening. Miss Clara Richardson accompanied them on their way home as far as Clarksburg Wednesday morning.

Miss Lynn Glover was shopping at Clarksburg Wednesday.

The Easter services which are to be held at the Methodist Protestant church Easter Sunday at 8 o'clock
p. m. are going to be well worth attending. The primary classes have several very interesting drills and exercises. The choir has secured the help of several members of the orchestra. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Bowman and little daughter,
Marion, were shopping at Fairmont recently.

Miss Geraldine Rinehart was shopping at Fairmont a few days ago.

Miss Josephine Martin was shopping at Clarksburg recently.

The Franklin and Shakespearean societies of the Shinnston High school rendered the following program Friday afternoon:

Shakespeare Society.
Song—Society.
Roll call—Secretary.
Response by quotations.
Reading—Margaret Robey.
Original story—Agnes Wilkinson.
Duet—Anna Matis and Mary Ter-rick.

Debate—Resolved, that athletics
are beneficial to all high schools.
Affirmative, Clara Richardson and Geraldine Rinehart; negative—Jessie Hess and Carrie Jaynes.

Franklin Society.
Song—Society.
Secretary's report—Zella Short.
Song—Society.
Select reading—Virginia Richardson.

Correspondence by Edith Pigott
and Hazel Libson.

Current events—Gladys Tetrick.
Duet—Minnie Shinn and Arlie
Cunningham.

Debate—Resolved, that the treatment of the Indians by the government has been unjust. Affirmative, Archie McIntire and Russell Martin; negative, Fred Ferguson and Fay Sutrum.

Adjournment.
Prof. B. F. Haught was a visitor at Clarksburg recently.

Miss Griffin, of Clarksburg, was a guest of Miss Rho Warden recently.
Miss Hazel Rinehart was at Fairmont recently.

Ernest Shinn was a business visitor at Fairmont Wednesday.

The revival services at the Methodist Episcopal church are still in progress. The Rev. Mr. Rhodes left Wednesday for his home at Moundsville, but the Rev. Mr. McClusk, the local pastor, expects to continue the meetings the rest of the week.
There have been about forty conversions during the meetings, and every night large crowds attend.

Miss Esther Lowe is home again
after teaching six weeks at the Gypsy school. Miss Lowe has been teaching the first grade since the death of Miss Hagan, the teacher.

The Keyes Sisters' Stock Company is here for a week's engagement.

Miss Agnes Wilkinson is able to be out again after several days' illness of tonsillitis.

Miss Lizzie and Reva Hamilton, of Mannington, were guests of Miss Essie Riss the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Koon, of Edgemont, visited Mrs. Koon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Swiger, of the West Side, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tetrick, of Enterprise, were guests of Mrs. Cora Tetrick a few days ago.

Russell Jaynes was a visitor at Clarksburg recently.

Mrs. Harlan Pigott visited Clarksburg friends a few days ago.

DAY NOT CRAZY.

A lunacy warrant against Claude
Day, of Bridgeport, has been dismissed by Justice G. H. Gordon after examination and he has been released from custody.

CASE IS DISMISSED.

Steven Bartok, a Pinnickinnick coal miner, failed to appear in Justice Gordon's court and prosecute his charge of murderous assault against John P. Ladonya, a fellow miner, and the justice dismissed the case at the former's cost. Bartok alleged that Ladonya used a hatchet, a bottle and a chair on him.
